Itinerary

Baraboo Big Top Circus World Parade, Museum Visit and Circus Show Dinner Included

Today, we're off to Baraboo, Wisconsin, for an unforgettable day at the annual Big Top Circus World Parade! We'll have reserved bleacher seating along the parade route, giving you an incredible front-row view of the colorful circus wagons, talented performers, marching bands, and all the excitement that makes this parade so special.

Before the parade begins, take some time to explore the many specialty food vendors along the parade route and grab a delicious lunch while soaking in the festive atmosphere. Once the parade comes to an end, we'll make our way to the Circus World Museum, where we'll get an up-close look at the magnificent historic circus wagons, fascinating memorabilia, and treasures from the golden age of the American circus.

And the excitement doesn't stop there! This afternoon, we're in for some big-top fun as we settle under the iconic circus tent for an exciting Big Top Circus Performance. Get ready for amazing acts, thrilling entertainment, and plenty of circus magic!

After a spectacular day filled with parades, history, and circus thrills, we'll begin our journey home, making a stop along the way for dinner at one of our favorite restaurants. We'll then continue home, dropping everyone off at their designated locations after a truly memorable day of circus fun and adventure!
