Welcome to Iceland, Blue Lagoon, and Hafnarfjörður

Day 1 Fly on an overnight flight to Keflavík International Airport in Reykjavík.

Day 2 Arrive at Keflavík International Airport and meet your private guide and coach. Visit the Blue Lagoon for a geothermal soak, then continue to Hafnarfjörður for hotel check-in and a traditional Viking dinner with Icelandic cuisine and entertainment. D

Day 3 — August 9, 2027

Snæfellsnes Peninsula and Vatnshellir Cave

Explore the Snæfellsnes Peninsula, known for its diverse landscapes, including black sand beaches, sea cliffs, volcanic craters, fishing villages and Snæfellsjökull glacier. Visit Vatnshellir Cave and descend 35 meters into its lava tube before continuing to Kirkjufell Mountain and the hotel. B D

Day 4 — August 10, 2027

Borgarfjörður Sightseeing and Krauma Baths

Visit Deildartunguhver, Europe's most powerful hot spring, and learn how its geothermal water is used by local communities. Continue to Krauma Geothermal Baths for a soak in water sourced from Deildartunguhver and cooled with glacial water. Visit Hraunfossar, where water flows from beneath a lava field, followed by Barnafoss and its glacial river canyon. Return to the hotel in Stykkishólmur for dinner. B L D

Day 5 — August 11, 2027

Golden Circle, Geothermal Farming and Bread Tasting

Explore Iceland's Golden Circle, beginning at Þingvellir National Park, where Iceland's parliament was established and the North American and Eurasian tectonic plates meet. Visit Friðheimar Greenhouse to learn about geothermal-powered tomato farming and enjoy tomato soup and specialties. Continue to Haukadalur to see Strokkur geyser erupt, taste traditional rye bread baked underground with geothermal heat, and visit Gullfoss waterfall before checking into the hotel in Hella. B D

Day 6 - August 12, 2027

South Coast and Ice Cave Adventure

Explore Iceland's South Coast, visiting Seljalandsfoss waterfall and the black sand beach of Reynisfjara before continuing to Vík. Travel by Super Jeep toward Kötluþjökull Glacier and hike with a glacier guide to a naturally formed ice cave. Visit Skógafoss waterfall and the Caves of Hella, followed by tastings of Icelandic whisky, gin and mead with local delicacies. Return to the hotel in Hella. B D

Day 7 - August 13, 2027

Local Flavors and Reykjavík Food Walk

Travel toward Reykjavík with a stop at UNA Local Product to browse Icelandic foods, crafts and products from local producers. Visit the geothermal area of Seltún and nearby Kleifarvatn before continuing to Reykjavík. After hotel check-in and free time, enjoy a Reykjavík Food Walk featuring traditional and contemporary Icelandic dishes and local culinary stories. An optional horseback riding tour with Icelandic horses, waffles and a hot drink is available for $175. B L D

Day 8 - August 14, 2027

Reykjavík Sightseeing and Icelandic Cooking Experience

Explore Reykjavík and the surrounding Capital Region, including Bessastaðir and Perlan. At Perlan, visit the Ice Cave and Glacier Exhibition, Northern Lights and Volcano Show, and observation deck for 360° views of Reykjavík. In the evening, take part in a hands-on three-course cooking experience led by an Icelandic chef using local ingredients. B L D

Day 9 — August 15, 2027

Farewell to Iceland

Day 9 After breakfast, depart Iceland for Keflavík International Airport. Air-Inclusive guests will take the included group transfer for their return flight to Chicago O'Hare, while Land-Only guests will arrange their own transportation to the airport and are encouraged to book later departures. B
